

NJ's do not call list is perfect. There no reason that I should be bothered by phone calls from telemarketers while I am at home. Many people have important and stressfull jobs that require rest while not at work. These invasive calls come at inoportune times and decrease that ability to rest. Many people do not work 9-5 so these calls may come while they are sleeping.